Counsel,

I write in response to your email below. The attached correspondence addresses the issues in paragraphs 1 and 2 of your email.

Mark is out of the office traveling today, but we can be available to meet and confer tomorrow or Thursday. We would like to meet and confer about Plaintiffs' most recent discovery responses during that same call. Please let us know what time(s) tomorrow or Thursday will work for you.

Counsel,

1) After a quick review of the 5 boxes you provided yesterday, it seems all the documents supplied are pleadings from US cases in which the PA and PLO are defendants. Is this accurate? Are there any documents that are not pleadings? If there are other documents mixed in, please identify them forthwith.
2) Also, we demand that you immediately provide an index correlating the 12,000 page mass of documents to the specific document requests.
3) Please advise of a time Monday or Tuesday for a "meet and confer" with respect to the Defendants' objections to the Plaintiffs Third Request for Documents. I am also available Sunday if convenient for you.
